

Job Title : StartCenter Engineer

Moving mobility forward

We are Aptiv – a new technology company with a proven history of enabling mobility. Operating as Delphi, we pioneered advances in the industry. Now, as Aptiv, we're more dedicated than ever to bringing the next generation of autonomous vehicles, smart cities and connectivity to life.

Join our innovative team

Want to do more than just imagine the ways our world will move tomorrow? Here's your opportunity. Join the technology company that's transforming the future of mobility today.

About Aptiv

Aptiv is an advanced technology company with a proven history of enabling mobility. We're dedicated to bringing the next generation of autonomous vehicles, smart cities and connectivity to life. Aptiv.com

Job Responsibilities and Duties:

New Business Pursuit:

1. Get the RFQ due to defined strategy of products and customers;
2. Prepare and follow-up the quotations from technical aspects;
3. Collect, filtration and transfer valuated information.

With Customer Engineering:

1. Keep close contact with customer to define customer technology roadmap thus new business opportunities;
2. Work together with product Engineering on supporting engineering development, design change investigation, follow through engineering change approval;
3. Drive customer engineering design to optimize APTIV's technical outcome.

With Internal Functional Departments:

1. Work from engineering areas to gather engineering cost and product information to quote new programs accurately and on-time;

2. Support customer requests by working with internal engineering departments and following internal workflow.

Qualifications:

1. Bachelor's degree in related field or above;
2. Fluent English communication skill is required;
3. 2~5 years of automotive engineering experience preferred;
4. Meticulous, good attitude and team player;
5. Proficiency in using Microsoft Office software;
6. Be pro-active to follow-up automotive technology tendency;